

HENRY H. SCADIN DAIRIES

1898

Saturday, January 1

Ther.: 24+

Wea.: Cold and windy

Bought a load of wood and chopped it all up this afternoon. The wind was furious and cold, and I felt as cold as ever last winter. Had a letter from Kate tonight.

Sunday, Jan. 2

Ther.: 19+

Wea.: cold

Last night the coldest of season so far. I attended the Episcopal church this forenoon, 16 others there. Went out to Mr. Howes for dinner. We did a little singing afterward.

Monday, Jan. 3

Ther.: 30+

It has moderated. I printed up and finished all but burnishing a lot of views. Took another view of Tryon this forenoon. Developed tonight.

Tuesday, Jan. 4

Ther.: 50+

Been warm and pleasant all day. Clouding a little tonight. I took some views over and showed them to Mr. Godshaw. Left some at the drug store. Went over to the Pacolet valley this afternoon a little while. Took a portrait this afternoon.

Wednesday, Jan. 5

Ther.: 63+

Wea.: fine

This morning I went out and took a baby's picture, then I went down and got a view of the high trestle on the Railway. This afternoon I went out to Lyn and was taken through the knitting factory there. Been a warm day.

Thursday, Jan. 6

Wea.: rainy

It rained about all day. I wrote an order for some Photo Goods. Marked some negatives and wrote a letter to Kate. Had a letter from Hiram and they had a freeze there last week.

Friday, Jan. 7

Wea.: clear, moderate

I went out viewing this forenoon, taking two views of the Knitting Mill at Lyn. Had a letter from Mr. Jacobs at noon telling me to go ahead with the views, so I will close up here soon. Did some printing this afternoon.

Saturday, Jan. 8

Ther.: 64+

Wea.: warm, fine

I worked today at finishing up a batch of photos. Had another letter from Jenks hurrying me up about the mining views they want. Sold some more of my etchings to an artist, who spends her winters here.

Sunday, Jan. 9

Wea.: warm, cloudy

Did not go to church today as I had so much writing to do in connection with my going away. Called out in the Pacolet valley this afternoon.

Monday, Jan. 10

Ther.: 70+

Wea.: warm

Have been very busy all day packing up to leave tomorrow. It has been so warm that I did not need any fire. Sent off for a lot of photo goods. Had a nice lot of etchings from Kate tonight. Packed my trunk tonight.

Tuesday, Jan. 11

Wea.: rain

After I got ready to leave this morning it began raining. Left Tryon on the noon train. Stopped 2 hours in Hendersonville and then came to Brevard, where I am staying tonight.

Wednesday, Jan. 12

Mr. Hays came down with his team last night, and I drove them back for him today, so was very lucky. It has been a good day but is raining tonight. Am at Sapphire again.

Thursday, Jan. 13

Wea.: Cooler and clear

Mr. Burlingame took me all about the line on my land this forenoon, and I am well pleased with it. I picked out a place for house site and cleaned off a little of the ground this afternoon. Staying with Lowry Verner tonight.

Friday, Jan. 14

Wea.: clouds

I looked about on my place this forenoon. Found some very pretty spots, and one beautiful little glen. Cleaned out a couple of springs. Had letters from home tonight.

Saturday, Jan. 15

Wea.: rain

This forenoon it rained about all the time. I rode Mr. Burlingame's horse over to his place and took his dinner. Worked a cleaning a road out on my place. Took Mr. B. and Lucy over to see my Glen.

Sunday, Jan. 16

Wea.: Clear

I went to the Sapphire Sunday School this forenoon then took Lowry Verner over to see my place, then went up to Mr. R. A. Jacobs with him to dinner. Went to hotel to a sing this evening.

Monday, Jan. 17

Wea.: rain

It has been a cloudy, chilly, disagreeable day. We all expected snow. I chopped up some wood this forenoon. Mr. B. and I sent an order for fruit trees. Wrote a letter to Kate tonight.

Tuesday, Jan. 18

Wednesday, Jan. 19

Wea.: rain and sleet

It has stormed all day, raining and sleeting. I went with Mr. Burlingame and helped him put on lathe in his house. I am getting anxious to go to Highlands as my mail must be going there now.

Thursday, Jan. 20

Wea.: clear and warmer

This has been a beautiful day. I went up on Mt. Toxaway this forenoon and made views of the Club House. This afternoon I did some viewing for Mr. Jenks, with my large camera which came today.

Friday, Jan. 21

Wea.: Fine

Mr. Crisp's team took me and my things to Highlands today. I walked considerable and had a fine chance to use my field glass. Am going to stay at Mr. Rideouts while here.

Saturday, Jan. 22

Wea.: rain

Spent the day in getting my things in shape for photo work. Have a room in back of house for developing and developed 3 8 x 10's tonight. Had a letter from Kate this evening. It is warmer and rains hard tonight.

Sunday, Jan. 23

Wea.: cool, pleasant

Went to church this forenoon and heard Mr. Wade preach. This afternoon the team came from Cullasajee and took me and camera down the mountain to that point where I am to begin my job of viewing.

Monday, Jan. 24

Wea.: pleasant

Have been hard at work all day making views at Corundum Hill. Exposed 17 plates. Called and took supper at Mr. Geo. Jacobs tonight. Am tired.

Tuesday, Jan. 25

Wea.: rain

It rained hard during last night. Went to the Eljay mines to make views. It rained quite hard before we got back. I had a letter from ma and a p.o. order for $60 in it. Called at Geo. Jacobs.

Wednesday, Jan. 26

Wea.: Cool, clear

Took a view of Mr. Geo. Jacobs house this morning and also the original Cullasaja apple tree. Viewed a Corundum mine on top of a mountain and a man's house in the valley. It is much colder.

Thursday, Jan. 27

Wea.: bright

I started with two wagons this morning and went to the Corundum mines at Buck Creek over the Nantahala mountains into Clay Co. We camp in a log cabin. Had a nice trip.

Friday, Jan. 28

Wea.: bright

Spent today in making views on the mining property. I like the country up here very much and Buck Creek is the prettiest stream I about ever saw. I get very hungry and eat hearty.

Saturday, Jan. 29

Wea.: clear

We came back to Cullasaja today. Camped for dinner just this side of the Nantahala's. We also stopped and had supper, then drove in by moonlight. I have enjoyed this trip. Found two letters here from Kate.

Sunday, Jan. 30

Wea.: cold, snow

This morning it was snowing and was much like winter. I took dinner with the Jacobs and spent most of the afternoon there. Wrote to Kate this evening.

Monday, Jan. 31

Tuesday, Nov. 22

Been a squally day. It has turned very cold tonight. I cut up some wood.

Wednesday, Nov. 23

Ther.: +

Willie and I sawed up some wood this forenoon and I drew it up this afternoon. Froze hard all day.

Thursday, Nov. 24

Today was thanksgiving. Kate and I took dinner at her folks. Ma took care of Dewey while we were away. It has been a very pleasant day, but cold.

Friday, Nov. 25

It was sunny today and I did a lot of photo printing. An "Uncle Sam" entertainment at the church tonight. I blacked up and sung Dixie Land for them. It is snowing.

Saturday, Nov. 26

Couple of inches of snow this morning. I took Lizzie and Marion to Delhi for train home. Finished photos this afternoon. Been some stormy.

Sunday, Nov. 27

There was beautiful frost work on trees etc. this morning. It has been a beautiful day. Stayed close at home all day.

Monday, Nov. 28

Spent the forenoon in fixing up calendars. Vida and I went up to Dexter this afternoon. I sent a lot of calendars off south. We had a grist of mail. It snows again tonight.

Tuesday, Nov. 29

I spent the day sawing wood, mixing chemicals, and salting plain paper. It has been thawing today.

Wednesday, Nov. 30

Sawed and split wood this forenoon. Went out north and tried to take a baby's photo this afternoon. It has been very chilly day.

Thursday, December 1

Kate and I drove down to Ann Arbor this forenoon to do some trading. The roads are very good but the snow still covers the ground.

Friday, Dec. 2

I printed and finished leaves for the Dexter Booklet. It was not an extra good day. W. Cook and Frank Williams were here this P.M. Kate was over at her folks most of the day.

Saturday, Dec. 3

I fixed up a show card of my Dexter Booklet and took it up and the Postmaster put it in his front window. It has been mild weather, and roads getting muddy.

Sunday, Dec. 4

Been squally some today, and tonight it is snowing hard. It has been thawing all day though. Dewey has been better than for several days back.

Monday, Dec. 5

It was sleighing this morning. Had to shovel snow and make paths. Sawed considerable wood today. Went over to father Queal's and took dinner.

Tuesday, Dec. 6

Have had a bad day to print. Snowed about all the time. Kate and I went over and saw father Queal start for Florida. Austin Smith and wife were here tonight.

Wednesday, Dec. 7

Stormy a good deal today, but some sun at noon. I finished off some photos for the Dexter booklet. Dewey ate some squash at noon and for some reason is acting sick tonight.

Thursday, Dec. 8

Ther.: 15+

Spent the forenoon chopping in the woods. Drew a load up this afternoon and did some sawing. Sun shone some today but there were squalls of snow.

Friday, Dec. 9

Sawed some wood this forenoon. Went up to Dexter this afternoon and took some of the Dexter Booklets. Had letter saying Chas. Hull of Highland, N. Y. was to be buried today.

Saturday, Dec. 10

Been a windy blustering day. Pa and ma went to Farmers meeting at Stearns Wheelers. Will and I sawed wood forenoon. I finished more leaves for Booklet this P. M. Received order from Tryon for Calendars.

Sunday, Dec. 11

I took a cutter ride this morning out to Edgar Olsavers. The roads are badly drifted. Sun shone good deal today.

Monday, Dec. 12

It began snowing this morning and stormed hard till noon. It has grown colder this afternoon, and cleared off. Have been printing all I could.k

Tuesday, Dec. 13

Ther.: 4+

Coldest morning and day of the winter so far. I printed photos this forenoon and finished a batch this afternoon. Made a lot of Calendars for Tryon.

Wednesday, Dec. 14

Ther.: 3+

Cold today. Willie took Vida to Ann Arbor and she went to Detroit on the Motor to visit the Hubbells. Finished a batch of prints this afternoon.

Thursday, Dec. 15

I printed and finished a lot of Booklet leaves today. Pa and Willie took a couple of beefs to Dexter. Ma went to a missionary dinner. I sent for a new Vive hand camera.

Friday, Dec. 16

It has been cloudy and bothered me about photo work today. Is growing warmer.

Saturday, Dec. 17

Thawed a good deal today. Pa and Ma went to Dexter and took dinner. I printed and finished photos.

Sunday, Dec. 18

Been quite warm today and the snow settled fast. It may spoil the sleighing. Will Burnett was here at dinner.

Monday, Dec. 19

It has stormed all day, a freezing rain, everything is all ice. I did a lot of calendars and pictures up to send away. Vida came home tonight.

Tuesday, Dec. 20

Went up to Dexter this morning and spent the day there canvassing for my Souvenir Book. Sold quite a few. Took dinner with aunt Ann. Walked home after dark.

Wednesday, Dec. 21

Kate and I went up to Dexter this forenoon to do a little Christmas shopping. We took a buggy as the sleighing is in bad shape. It keeps on thawing. Tried new camera today.

Thursday, Dec. 22

It has been raining about all day. Will and I got up some wood and have been sawing in the woodshed. I tried a flash light photo tonight.

Friday, Dec. 23

I went to Ann Arbor on the cars this forenoon and came back tonight. Took dinner with Mrs. Williams. Called on Cushman. Growing colder.

Saturday, Dec. 24

Finished off some Calendar photos today. Went over to Don's this forenoon and found Kate's mother pretty badly off. We had our Christmas presents today. There was a goodly lot.

Sunday, Dec. 25

We had a Christmas dinner here at home. Pa went up and got Uncle John and aunt Ann. Don Queal and Nellie were here. It was a very pleasant day. I took the folks back to Dexter tonight.

Monday, Dec. 26

Helped do the washing this morning. Wrote some letters and did up some calendars to send Highlands, then Kate and I went out to see her brother Henry and family. It is cold and stormy tonight.

Tuesday, Dec. 27

Sawed wood this forenoon. Went skating on the lake this afternoon. Will and I had fun with a skate sail. It has grown cold tonight and the wind blows. Total eclipse of the moon.

Wednesday, Dec. 28

Went skating a little while this forenoon with Jay and Ray McColl. Did some photo printing. Took Don's skates home this afternoon. Will, Kate and I went to McColl's for supper this evening.
